We are permanent residents living in Calgary, Alberta, and our job, school and family commitments do not allow us currently to travel to Belarus to see our parents. We moved to Canada with our three children in 2018. They miss their grandparents a lot and will be very glad to see their grandmother and spend some time with her in our new home here in Canada. We are happy to accommodate my mother, [REDACTED] with us for the period of her stay in Canada. By signing below, we promise to cover all expenses related to her accommodation, food and travel, including medical insurance coverage. My spouse, [REDACTED] has a permanent job as a cook in Calgary since summer 2018, and we also have savings to support her visit.

Family connections is an extremely important value for us. We plan to baptize our youngest daughter Milana in the Russian Orthodox Church of All Saints, Calgary in July 2019. My mother's presence here with us during this important milestone in her granddaughter's life will make this event extra special. My mother will also be able to spend more time with her grandchildren during summer break when school is over.

We guarantee that my mother will leave Canada and depart home by July 30, 2019. My mother has no intentions of extending her stay in Canada due to her big family and active work schedule back in Belarus. She has been happily married for more than 30 years, has a permanent job, savings account and a credit card. She also owns an apartment and a car in Brest, Belarus. For the time of her travel to Canada she will leave behind her spouse, son and daughter-in-law, two grandchildren, and the elderly mother. My mother has $5000 on her savings account, which she is bringing here.

Please feel free to contact me with any questions or for any additional information at [REDACTED] or by phone [REDACTED]

Kind regards,
